

Who's Who in BC's Public Education Sector?

In support of our members, the BCPVPA collaborates with a variety of organizations in the BC education sector. Click the links to learn more about the many groups who are working to achieve success for students, staff, and educational leaders in the province.

Ministry of Education and Child Care
Public Sector Employers' Council Secretariat
BC Teachers' Council

BCPSEA is a full-service employers' association and is the accredited bargaining agent for the province's 60 public boards of education, for unionized teaching and support staff in the British Columbia K-12 public

BCSSA represents superintendents, assistant superintendents, directors of instruction, and senior executives across BC's 60 school districts, driving district operations, and leveraging deep educational expertise and certified teaching credentials to ensure excellence in schools.

BCSTA serves and supports their members, BC's boards of education, in their key work of improving student achievement. They represent member boards in advocacy with respect to matters affecting public education, provincial decision-making, relevant legislation, and government policies and practices affecting public education.

The BC Association of School Business Officials (BCASBO) is a member-driven organization dedicated to providing membership value, advocating for members, and building relationships. The membership includes secretary-treasurers, assistant secretary-treasurers, directors of finance, and other management staff in the areas of payroll, procurement, human resources, facilities and information technology.

The British Columbia Teachers' Federation (BCTF) is the union representing more than 51,000 public school teachers in BC. All public school teachers belong to the BCTF and their local teachers' association.

First Nations Schools Association of British Columbia

The FNSA represents and works on behalf of First Nations controlled schools in BC, supporting those schools in creating effective, nurturing, and linguistically and culturally appropriate education environments that provide students with a positive foundation in all academic areas.

CUPE BC represents more than 30,000 education workers including education assistants, school secretaries, custodians/caretakers, Indigenous support workers, IT workers, Strong Start facilitators, trades and maintenance

The Federation of Independent School Associations in British Columbia is an umbrella organization of independent school associations formed in BC. FISA BC represents 329 schools enrolling 85,818 students.

BCCPAC represents the parents of children attending BC public schools. As the provincial voice of parents, guardians and caregivers, they engage, empower and support them for the success of all learners through collaboration, partnership and education, in a culture of acceptance, inclusion and equity.

The First Nations Education Steering Committee (FNESC) is a policy and advocacy organization that represents and works on behalf of First Nations in British Columbia. FNESC has a mandate to support First Nations students and advance First Nations education in BC.

Several BC post-secondary education institutions offer professional development at masters and doctoral levels, and play a critical role in the advancement of education in BC with leadership program opportunities for educators at all stages of their careers.